

NAME position on National Violent Death Reporting System (NVDRS)

The National Association of Medical Examiners Executive Committee supports the general concept of a National Violent Death Reporting System (NVDRS) which has defined public health and safety goals, measurable project outcomes, planned and tangible benefits at the local and state level, and necessary support of medical examiner and coroner systems participating in the process.