

State of Connecticut Office of the Chief Medical Examiner Fellowship Program

Program Highlights

- Two Fellows per year (established in 2021)
- Rotations: Toxicology (at NMS Labs), State Crime Lab, State Police Major Crime Unit
- Friendly, knowledgeable and experienced staff
- Over 70 employees of diverse backgrounds including 10 full-time and 6 part-time Medical Examiner positions
- In-house histology and anthropology labs, staff medicolegal investigators for scenes (24/7), autopsy photographers, autopsy techs, and digital radiology
- Staff forensic anthropologist, neuropathologists, and cardiovascular pathologist
- Toxicology is outsourced with >90% of reports completed within 30 days
- Our NAME-accredited facility serves the entire State of Connecticut (8 counties, 169 towns)
- Approximately 3,200 autopsies and 500 external examinations per year for a population of 3.7 million state residents
- Affiliated with several medical schools and universities, including UCONN, Yale, Quinnipiac, and the University of New Haven
- Opportunities to testify at trial during your fellowship year
- Academic fund for fellows with paid attendance at annual meeting and research opportunities available if interested
- We participate the NRMP MATCH!

Dr. James Gill - Chief Medical Examiner
Dr. Maura DeJoseph - Deputy Chief Medical Examiner
Michelle Carroll - Fellowship Program Coordinator
11 Shuttle Road, Farmington, CT 06032
(860)679-3980
Email mcarroll@ocme.org for more information

There are So Many Reasons to Choose Connecticut!

Historic and charming New England

Farms and orchards scattered throughout every county

Champion Professional and Collegiate Sports Teams

Monthly Therapy Dog Visits

Museums, Beaches, Lakes, Hiking, Antiquing, Sports, Music and Casinos

OCME Social Committee organizes In-house gatherings and Outside Events

Ranked 3rd in the Nation for Educational Attainment and Overall Quality of Education

Incredible Restaurants, Wineries and Breweries

Four beautiful, picturesque seasons

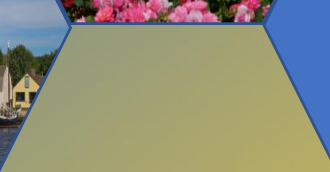

Mystic Village and Aquarium, Elizabeth Park Rose garden, concert venues and skiing

Consistently ranks as one of the top 10 safest states in the country

Within Driving Distance to Boston, New York, Newport and Philadelphia

Farmington Reservoir hiking and nature trail located 1 mile from OCME

