

Deputy Chief Medical Examiner

The Ideal Candidate

The Deputy Chief Medical Examiner will be a highly effective, and results-oriented professional. An individual with a team management style who is honest, straight forward, and trustworthy is sought. Exceptional management and communication skills are needed.

Selected candidate must be energetic, optimistic, dedicated to public service, and able to find options and creative solutions. An approachable professional who provides a work environment that emphasizes teamwork, respect, and accountability at all levels is needed. Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build trust and valued relationships within the community are imperative.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

Graduation from an approved school of medicine and completed a fellowship training in Forensic Pathology

Compensation

The current annual salary for the Deputy Chief Medical Examiner position is

$100.1 - $169.24

Selected individual will also receive an excellent benefits package including Florida Retirement System participation, a voluntary deferred compensation plan, health, life, and disability insurance, and paid personal leave. The State of Florida does not have a state income tax

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Each doctor office has a workroom.
- Each doctor office has restroom/ shower amenities.
- Renewal of medical license and dues/membership paid by county.
- Each doctor given the opportunity to attend in state and out of state conferences paid by county.
- Each doctor given the opportunity to charge for expert testimony on civil trials.

Must be board certified , by the American Board of Pathology in Anatomic or Anatomic/ Clinical Pathology and Forensic Pathology. Board certification must be maintained as a condition of continued employment. Five or more years of experience preferred.

Must be licensed to practice medicine in Florida at the time of appointment or be able to obtain such license within 90 days of appointment, as required by the Florida Department of Professional Regulations. Florida licensure must be maintained as a condition of continued employment

Must possess and maintain a valid Florida driver's license