Immediate Opening: Deputy Medical Examiner

Johnson County Government is seeking a qualified candidate to fill the position of a Deputy Medical Examiner. This position will serve as Deputy Medical Examiner/Deputy Coroner, second in command to the Chief Medical Examiner/Coroner. The Medical Examiner's Office in Olathe, KS has been operating since August 2020. The building boasts state-of-the-art equipment, including a CT scanner and Lodox. In-house toxicology will also be offered in the 33,000 square foot location, beginning in 2024-2025. In 2022, the office accepted jurisdiction of 668 deaths and conducted a total of 230 complete autopsies between two physicians.

Johnson County, with a population of almost 600,000, is located in northeast Kansas and close to metropolitan Kansas City, Missouri – home to the 2020 Super Bowl champions, the Chiefs and the 2015 World Series winners, the Royals. In 2018, USA Today named Johnson County one of the top twenty best counties in the nation. Johnson County consistently ranks #1 in the "County Health Rankings" and is home to award winning parks (including several dog parks) and libraries. Johnson County has six excellent school districts and several colleges. Museums, performing arts, various professional sports, and the Kansas City International Airport are all nearby.
