

Hematology Oncology physician opportunities available throughout eastern North Carolina due to expansion.

ECU Health Physicians are seeking a BE/BC Fellowship trained Hematology Oncologist to join their cancer program.

Applicants should have an interest in growing a community-based general oncology practice.

Experienced applicants are preferred. New graduates are welcome to apply.

- Monday-Friday 8am-5pm schedule to include half day administrative time
- Shared regional call
- Established team of experienced nurses and nurse navigators
- Advance practice provider support
- Clinical responsibilities will include: developing treatment plans for new diagnosis in hematology oncology patients, chemotherapy oversight, supervising advance practice provider on follow up patients, and participation in tumor board
- Participation in a 9 -hospital system of cancer care with 5 COC accredited sites sharing a common medical record and planned COC Network
- Close collaboration with the ECU Health Cancer Care team located in Greenville, NC which includes a multidisciplinary team of specialists including radiation oncologists, hematology oncologists, surgical oncologists, gynecologic oncologist, neurological oncologist, hematology oncology fellows, and patient navigators
- Competitive compensation and comprehensive benefits package to include: annual administrative stipend, relocation assistance, vacation, sick, and holidays, malpractice (with tail), 401k, 457b, medical, dental, vision, disability, and life insurance

Highlights of eastern NC include - thriving cultural, educational, and economic cities and towns, the pristine beaches from the Outer Banks to the Crystal Coast, East Carolina University, a beautiful mild climate perfect for year-round outdoor activities, and a cost of living below the national average.

Available Locations: Greenville, NC Kinston, NC Outer Banks, NC and Washington, NC

If you, or a colleague, are interested in learning more about this opportunity, please contact Ashley Rudolph at (252)558-3763 or Ashley.Rudolph@ecuhealth.org.