

Louisiana Forensic Center, LLC (LFC) has an immediate opening for a Forensic Pathologist

LFC is a privately owned company that performs Forensic and medical autopsies for Coroners, hospitals, and the public throughout the state.

SIGN ON BONUS of $10,000.00 upon obtaining Louisiana State License and completion of employee packet

Lafayette, Louisiana

is at the heart of Louisiana's Cajun and Creole Country, an area known as the 'Happiest City in America'.

The rich cultural history, the tasty culinary scene and the distinctive Cajun and Zydeco music are all part of the cultural legacy created by the diverse people who settled here — Acadian, Creole, French, African, Spanish, Italian and Native Americans.

lafayettetravel.com

DON'T MISS OUT ON THIS ONCE IN A LIFETIME OPPORTUNITY!

➤ Applicant must be a graduate of a certified Medical or Osteopathic school, have completed an accredited training program in Anatomic or Combined Anatomic/Clinical Pathology, and have completed an accredited training program in Forensic Pathology.

➤ Competitive salary and benefits offered.

➤ The applicant must be Board Certified in Anatomic or Anatomic/Clinical Pathology and be Board Certified or Board Eligible in Forensic Pathology.

➤ The annual caseload consists of approximately 300 autopsies and includes the following: external and internal examinations to determine cause and manner of death; preparation of reports containing examination findings; interpretation and discussion of findings with local Coroners, law enforcement personnel, and district attorneys.

➤ Applicants must be able to obtain a Louisiana state medical license based on the Louisiana State Board of Medical Examiners requirements. Please assure you meet requirements prior to applying:
<http://lsbme.louisiana.gov/PhysLicense.htm>

➤ TO APPLY: Applicants should email their curriculum vitae to: crysbaldwin@gmail.com and can contact (910) 540-3502 with any questions.

All correspondence will remain confidential.

