MONTGOMERY COUNTY CORONER'S OFFICE
EAGLEVILLE, PA

Board Certified Forensic Pathologist
Salary—$220,000 to $260,000

ABOUT US:

The Montgomery County Coroner's Office (MCCO), located in Pennsylvania, is the third largest county in the state. It covers 62 townships and boroughs, spanning 487 square miles and serving a population of approximately 850,000 residents. In 2022, the MCCO conducted 973 examinations, including 549 full autopsies. Our new state-of-the-art facility, encircling 22,000 square feet, has recently been unveiled in Eagleville, PA. Montgomery County combines the benefits of suburban and rural areas, including parks, lakes, rivers and a quick drive to Philadelphia. We invite you to join our highly trained team of forensic personnel, investigators, and support staff.

COME JOIN OUR TEAM!

- At MCCO, we are laser-focused on fostering a collaborative work environment, with a strong emphasis on ensuring a harmonious work-life balance.

- This full-time pathologist position will cover examinations 3-4 weekdays per week, depending on case load.

- Seven per-diem forensic pathologists to provide supplementary coverage on weekdays, weekends and holidays.

- Consulting professionals include neuropathology, anthropology, odontology and genetic testing.

- Paid continuing education allowance and paid professional membership fees.

- Annual vacation, personal, sick leave and paid holidays.

- X-Ray room with LODOX and C-arm Fluoroscope.

- Conference space and a modernized training room with a 50 seat capacity.

- Five years experience preferred.

SALARY AND BENEFITS

- Salary – $220,000 to $260,000
- Medical, dental and vision coverage
- Pension plan with vesting after 5 years of full time service

If interested please visit: www.governmentjobs.com/careers/montcopa