

ASSISTANT MEDICAL EXAMINER

Highlights

- Join a staff of eight full-time and three part-time medical examiners in a friendly and supportive work environment
- Competitive compensation
  - o Salary with FP board certification: $302,555
  - o Salary without FP board certification: $282,762
- Newly built, state-of-the-art facilities
- In-house toxicology
- LODOX full-body X-ray scanner
- Access to the City's health, dental, and vision plans, plus enrollment in the city pension plan
- Live and work in a dynamic city with easy access to New York City, Washington DC, Baltimore, and the shore

Minimum Qualifications

- Graduation from an accredited school of medicine or osteopathy with a degree of Doctor of Medicine or Osteopathy
- Board certification by the American Board of Pathology in Anatomic Pathology or Anatomic and Clinical Pathology; or a minimum of 5 years of experience in forensic pathology
- Board certification by the American Board of Pathology in Forensic Pathology entitles the successful applicant to a salary increase
- Current trainees in forensic pathology fellowships are encouraged to apply

APPLY NOW!

For more information:

Contact Dr. Lindsay Simon, Chief Medical Examiner, at
lindsay.simon@phila.gov

A Modern, Supportive Workplace

- Approximately 1600 autopsies per year
- Our current staff includes eight full-time and two part-time medical examiners who foster a friendly and collegial work environment.
- Modern private offices, each featuring an adjustable standing desk
- Highly experienced and efficient team of autopsy technicians
- LODOX full-body X-ray scanner
- Rapid turnaround times for toxicology and histology
- Ready access to consultants in neuropathology, pediatric pathology, anthropology, radiology, and odontology
- State-of-the-art autopsy suite designed for optimal workflow, featuring an integrated antechamber that allows pathologists computer-based work without leaving the suite

Live and Thrive in Philadelphia

Relocate to a dynamic city of 1.5 million people that offers a world-class urban experience with a surprisingly manageable cost of living.

- Explore a nationally recognized food scene, from award-winning restaurants to iconic local eats. Immerse yourself in a thriving arts and music scene, with world-renowned museums, historic theaters, and countless live venues.
- Experience the passion of a major sports town, home to professional teams in every major league (NFL, NBA, MLB, and NHL)
- Take advantage of Philadelphia's prime location, which provides easy access to New York City, Baltimore, and Washington D.C., as well as the shore communities of New Jersey and Delaware

APPLY NOW!

For more information:

Contact Dr. Lindsay Simon, Chief Medical Examiner, at
lindsay.simon@phila.gov