

Be Part of Something Bigger

Monroe County is hiring Associate Medical Examiner

Providing answers for families and communities

About Us

The Monroe County Office of the Medical Examiner is an agency of the county government that serves in the public interest to investigate all reported deaths which are not attended by a physician and those which may not be natural in manner. Service is provided for Monroe County and many surrounding counties to aid in the administration of criminal and civil justice and to provide accurate data that can be utilized for public health and educational needs.

Salary

$173,745 - $240,504 annually

Requirements

Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college or university with a Doctor of Medicine degree, completion of a residency in pathology and a fellowship in forensic pathology.

Department

The Monroe County Office of the Medical Examiner performs over 1,200 autopsies annually. The office conducts over 4,000 death investigations each year.

Visit Our Website: www.monroecountyjobs.org

Email: donnellwebster@monroecounty.gov