

HEALTH SCIENCE CENTER®

Forensic Pathology Fellowship Memphis, Tennessee

The University of Tennessee Health Science Center (UTHSC), in conjunction with the Shelby County Medical Examiner's Office and the West Tennessee Regional Forensic Center (WTRFC) offer a 1-year ACGME-accredited forensic pathology fellowship

Now accepting applications for 1 (one) fellowship position with a start date of July 1, 2024!

Applications Due March 15, 2024

Application Requirements

- Must have completed AP/CP, AP/NP, or AP-only and be eligible for medical licensure in Tennessee.
- Three letters of recommendation
- Current Curriculum Vitae
- Personal Statement
- Copy of USMLE (Step 1-3) or COMLEX (Level 1-3) results
- Copy of ECFMG certificate - international graduates only

Highlights Include

- The fellow performs approximately 200 autopsies under the supervision of six forensic pathologists
- Encounter a wide variety of cases ranging from traumatic deaths, toxicological deaths, and natural deaths
- Visit the QR code for a full list of program highlights!

Submit all completed requirements to ragundis@uthsc.edu by March 15th

Scan the QR code to visit our website

