Reade A. Quinton, M.D.
Medical Examiner
Rochester, MN

Please join us Saturday, October 14th from 8 to 10 PM at Signia by Hilton, San Jose, California. On behalf of the NAME Foundation Board of Trustees, we would like to announce the eighth annual Saturday evening NAME

Foundation fundraising event, to be presented in conjunction with the NAME Annual Meeting in San Jose, California. This year's event focuses on deaths during magic performances, specifically the infamous Bullet Catch. The presenter will be our very own Dr. Reade A. Quinton and his presentation is entitled The Bullet Catch: The History of Magic's Deadliest Illusion. Dr. Quinton is an Associate Professor of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota and a medical examiner for the Southern Minnesota Regional Medical Examiner's Office. In addition, Dr. Quinton is a member of the Society of American Magicians and the International Brotherhood of Magicians. In 2015, Dr. Quinton was awarded a Presidential Certificate from the Society of American Magicians for his services to the Society and the magic community.
Note: ALL NAME meeting attendees will be required to wear their meeting name badge and anyone without a badge will be required to hold a physical ticket.

Absolutely NO photography, videography or audio recordings will be permitted. Anyone in violation will be immediately escorted out of the building and their recording device will be confiscated.

The event will serve as an outreach fundraiser for the NAME FOUNDATION to help raise scholarship money for Forensic Pathology Fellows, Pathology Residents, and students to attend and make scientific presentations at the NAME Annual Meeting. As such, attendance at this event will be associated with a small donation and require pre-registration. Ticket donations are $10 for students and trainees; $20 for foundation members; $35 for non-members and $70 package for foundation membership and ticket.

Pre-registration will be only via the NAME Foundation Website: <https://namefoundation.wildapricot.org/event-5292581>

Time: 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM

Cost: $70.00 per person

James T. McKim, Jr., PMP, ITIL Managing Partner,
Organization Ignition, LLC

Noticing very few women at the 1974 Annual NAME Meeting in Dallas, TX, Drs. Marcella Fierro and Sandra Conradi, went out to lunch. As more women joined, it became difficult to find a restaurant that could accommodate them all without a reservation. The first recorded NAME Femme Fatale Luncheon was held in Boston, MA in 1988, making this year the 35th Anniversary! Special thanks to the women that paved the way.

Please join us Monday, October 16th from 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM at Signia by Hilton, San Jose, California. Femme Fatale 2.0 is open to all members of NAME, regardless of gender, and will focus on diversity, equity, and inclusivity (DEI). DEI initiatives are critical to advancing our profession and ensuring that all individuals are treated with respect, dignity, and a sense of belonging. Don't miss this opportunity to connect with colleagues, learn about DEI at the organizational level, and celebrate the diversity that makes our profession strong.

This year's event will be presented by James T. McKim, Managing Partner, Organization Ignition, LLC. Mr. McKim is the Managing Partner of Organizational Ignition, a Management Consulting practice. He is a sought-after organizational performance speaker, coach, change manager, and author of the best-selling book The Diversity Factor: Igniting Superior Organizational Performance. Over his 35+ year career, he has helped small and large organizations, for-profit and non-profit, spark efficiency and growth through the aligning of people, process, and technology. Mr. McKim is known internationally for his current focus on organizational and individual performance through diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). He is recognized by industry watchers such as Atd, Brandon Hall, Bersin Associates, Axelos, and PMI for his dedication to creating win-win situations between organizations and their employees. In addition to founding 2 companies, he has held senior leadership roles at or worked with organizations such as Hewlett Packard Enterprise,

Fidelity, Dartmouth Hitchcock, and the Massachusetts Partnership for Diversity in Education in defining and executing strategic plans with an eye toward organizational performance. As President of the Manchester Branch of the NAACP, he works regularly with governments and businesses to eliminate discrimination. Register early as space is limited!

OPTIONAL BUSINESS BREAKFAST

CME: 1

Date: Tuesday, October 17, 2023

Time: 7:00 AM – 8:00 AM

Cost: $20.00 per person

The Business of Forensic Pathology

The practice of Forensic pathology is changing. Increasingly, forensic pathologists who were once only government employees are running their own practices. Those practices may include opening their own private autopsy service, consulting forensic services, or providing locum tenens forensic pathology services. All of these require knowledge on how to get started on how to start a business. This breakfast will provide a panel of forensic pathologists in an interactive session who are providing these services and are willing to share their experiences in practical steps. Pre-registration is required.
